

Innovations To Mark Mokena School Year

Several innovations will mark the new school year in the Mokena public grade system.

Kindergarten classes will be held.

Hot lunches are to be served.

Transportation costs for pupils living one and half miles or more from the school may be paid by the district instead of the parents.

School is to open Aug. 31 and Supt. James Ennis hopes that well in advance of that date pupils will have paid their fees, including book rentals, and thus avoid confusion and long lines when school begins.

This will be the first year that a kindergarten has been included in the public school system. The Mokena Woman's Club operated a kindergarten for several years but it was not until last spring that the school board decided that the district could afford to operate a kindergarten. Four classes are planned, two in the morning and two in the afternoon, at Carpenter Street School.

Mrs. Carmen Wingle, Joliet; Mrs. Wesley Slevert and Mrs. William Cady, Mokena, will staff this department.

The hot lunch program which will make its debut this year is to begin Sept. 8. The meals will cost 35 cents. A meal ticket may be purchased good for a week but if the holder is absent or misses a meal he will be given credit for the same the following week. Mrs. Jerry Wagner will be in charge of the kitchen, assisted by Mrs. Marge Stroh, Mrs. Virginia Hunniford and Mrs. Cordie Bochmann. Meals will be prepared at Willowcrest and transported to Carpenter Street School in heated containers.

Lunch will be served at Carpenter Street School at 12:30, it was announced. There will be three lunch periods at Willowcrest between 11:30 and 1 p.m.

Pupils entering kindergarten, first and fifth grade must show evidence of having undergone physical and dental examinations before they will be permitted to attend school. This is state law. Birth certificates must also be shown at kindergarten and in first grade, unless they already have been approved by school administrators.

In the past common school districts were not required to furnish transportation for pupils and when they did the parents paid for it at so much per pupil, as was the case in Mokena the past several years. This year, however, the district will pay the bill for transporting pupils who reside one and one-half miles or more, from the school if Gov. Kerner signs a bill authorizing such expenditures. School officials expect the governor will sign the proposal into law. The distance is to be measured by the most direct route.

Book rental fees for grades one thru eight is $9.50 per pupil and insurance (it's optional) is $2. The gymnasium fees for pupils in Grades 6 thru 8, is $4 a year, which covers rental of a gym suit and towel service. Fees for kindergarten include, $3 for book rental; $5 for milk, served at mid-day, for the entire school year; insurance (optional) $2, and transportation (optional) $2.

Arbury School Set For Opening Aug. 31

School will open Thursday, Aug. 31, for the children of the Arbury Hills School, Summit Hill District No. 161, at 9:00 a.m. The first day's activity will be confined to room assignments and distribution of materials. The session will be approximately two hours long. Sept. 1 will be a full day of school. Bus service will be provided beginning Aug. 31.

Milk will be paid for by the year only and will be the same as last year - $5 per child.

There will be no kindergarten classes on Aug. 31.

Bus fares: for one child

Municipal League Legal Beagles Err

Several of the municipalities in the area, including Joliet, are compelled to republish the ordinances that cover the sales tax on services.

The original ordinances followed a model measure sent out by the legal department of the Illinois Municipal League and pertained to the law they understood Gov. Kerner would sign. However, he signed a different law with different wording, which necessitates a change in the ordinances, it was reported.

The only municipality whose ordinance is correct is Frankfort, Village Attorney August Santoro drafted a measure that meets the requirements.

will be $4 per month; children - $5.50; three children - $7 and four or more - $8.50 per month payable in advance.

The fee for materials milk for kindergarten will be $12 for the year - from past experience it is best if all kindergarten children have milk during rest period, it was stated.

Educational materials for grades 1 thru 8 will be $10 per year. Those wishing milk will pay $5 in addition.

The school office will be open during the week of Aug. 21 from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Payment of fees, milk, bus, and student insurance is requested at this time due to the fact this revenue is needed immediately officials stated.

All new students to our district will need a physical, and dental examination also those entering kindergarten or 1st grade and the 5th grade.

Noontime Fire Destroys Home Of Mokena Resident

Fire, believed to have started around an electrical ceiling fixture, destroyed the interior of the home of Mrs. Alma Caulfield, 11016 Front St., Mokena. Mrs. Caulfield, who lived alone, had been taking a nap and was awakened by the smell of smoke. Sitting up she saw flames across the room and made her way to the front door.

As she opened the door she encountered Harold Cooper, of the Cooper-Hostert Ford agency next door at 11020 Front St., who had come to see if Mrs. Caulfield was in the house. She started to turn back to save some of her clothing but Cooper took her by the arm and led her away from the blazing building.

The fire was discovered about 12:10 p.m. Aug. 2, Danny Dina, who lives at 11014 Front St. and is employed by Cooper-Hostert, was on his way home for lunch. Seconds after he left the garage he was back again, saying the Caulfield house was burning.

Fire Chief Robert Rust, who also is employed at Cooper-Hostert, ran to the fire station in the next block and sounded the siren. Apparatus and firemen were at the scene immediately.

The house is old and the flames spread quickly thru the interior. Firemen threw tons of water on the fire and kept it from spreading to neighboring property. Other than a few sodden garments it was impossible to get any of the contents out of the house. The flames spread too fast.

Mrs. Caulfield was given shelter by friends.

In his report to the state fire marshal's office, Chief Rust stated that all indications pointed to the area around a ceiling fixture as the place where the fire originated. The wiring, Mrs. Caulfield said, was practically new.

Campground Owners Ask Sewer Hook-up

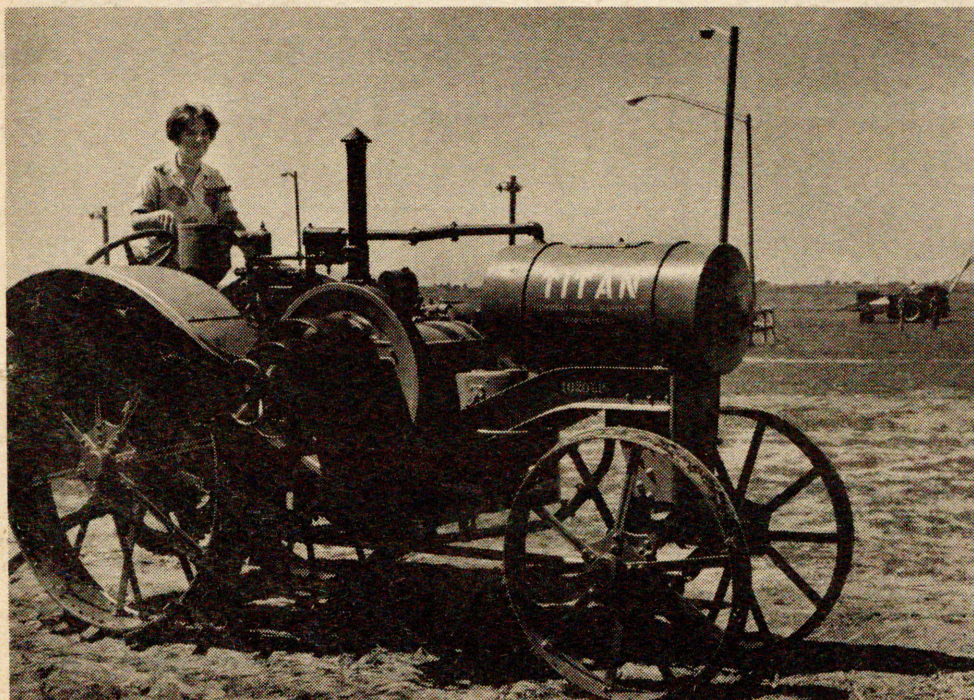

An overnight camping grounds, operating on a franchise of the Kampgrounds Of America Inc., is slated for U.S.S 45 in the vicinity of LaPorte Rd.

The Will County Zoning Board and the Mokena planning group are said to have given the proposal their blessing and now the owners of the land, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lewis, are seeking to make a connection with the Frankfort sewer system. They also would like to be annexed to Frankfort, they indicated when they appeared before the Frankfort Village Board Monday night.

They want to hook into the high pressure line that the Franciscan Sisters of the Sacred Heart are running from their property on St. Francis Rd. to the Frankfort sewage plant.

The camp ground, about 10 acres, will have its own well and could operate with a septic field as far as the county is concerned altho the county would like to have them hooked up with a sanitary sewer system. Operators of the sewage treatment plant for Arbury Hills refused to allow the camp to connect with their system, stating they were primarily in the business of selling water.

Lewis said the camping season usually ran from May 15 to September or mid-October and they anticipated serving 35 to 40 camping outfits a day. They will have a store handling food and other supplies and facilities for bathing, laundry and recreation, Lewis said. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis were accompanied to the board meeting by their attorney, Albert H. Krusemark.

ON PARADE was this relic of early farm power days--the tractor, that is, not the driver--at the annual steam show of the Threshermen's Association held at Francis 4-H Field, New Lenox. On each of the several days the show ran there was a parade and in between times the steam driven machinery was put to work, plowing, sawing wood and performing other chores now done by oil and internal combustion engines. Probably in another 20 years present farm equipment will be just as obsolete as these steam jobs are today. (Graphic Newspapers photo)

Barbara Miller Weds William Alexander

Final Standings, Averages Of Pony And Little League

Barbara Jean Miller became the bride of William A. Alexander June 10 at 7 p.m. in Eureka Christian Church, Eureka, Ill.

Rev. Glen Riedel performed the double-ring candle-light service for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Miller of Eureka, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.J. Alexander Jr., 19411 S. Wolf Rd., Mokena.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a slender gown of light ivory silk organza. The bodice was fashioned with a scooped neckline and bell sleeves of organza and re-embroidered Alencon lace. The Josephine skirt of organza, possessing appliques of Alencon lace, flowed to floor length. It had a lace appliqued court train. The brides imported silk elbow length veil was held by a forehead pearl and lace headpiece. She carried a single white orchid with stephanotis and lily-of-the-valley in a colonial arrangement with baby breath and ivy entwined on the long white streamers.

The maid of honor was Miss Jan Hammond, who chose a gown of maize peau de lin fashioned with empire bodice, slight scooped neckline, cap sleeves, floor-length A-line skirt and soft back fullness with self-belt accent. Her matching nose-tip veil was held by small peau de lin bows. She carried a bouquet of white miniature carnations and yellow baby breath and ivy entwined streamers.

Bridesmaids dressed identically with the maid of honor were Cece Conibear of Morton, Mary Gail Moran of Hecksville, N. Y., Marsha Leming of Fairbury and Susan Klaus of Eureka.

Best man was Donald Alexander of Mokena, brother of the groom. Ushers were Barth Dowling of Eureka, Eugene Leetch of Bloomington, Donald Day of Queens, N.Y., and Joe Seidel of Sandoval.

The brides mother selected a turquois crepe frock with matching lace cage and beige accessories.

A pale pink dress of crepe and pillbox hat with nose veil was worn by the bridegroom's mother. Her accessories were white.

A reception was held in the church parish hall for 150 relatives and friends.

Following a short wedding trip the couple is residing in Varna.

DANGEROUS GAME

Red Cross warned today that children often endanger their lives by playing games in the water.

Youngsters sometimes indulge in contests to see who can hold his breath longest under water or swim the greatest distance below the surface without coming up for air.

The children take deep gulps of air before submerging in an effort to stay under a long time. This lowers the amount of carbon dioxide in the swimmer's body. When the body's carbon dioxide level fails to build up fast enough to trigger breathing, the swimmer may black out.

Unless someone nearby gets him to the surface quickly, drowning will result.

CELEBRATES 80th BIRTHDAY -- Mrs. George Elsner, Frankfort, was a guest of the Frankfort-Mokena Homemakers Extension unit at a luncheon on the occasion of her birthday last week. The luncheon was given at Willowrun Country Club. Mrs. Elsner is the only charter member of the unit who still retains membership, which dates back to 1938. Mrs. Elsner is a past president of the club and present recreation chairman. Twenty-nine attended the luncheon. Mrs. Elsner is wearing an orchid corsage, the gift of Mrs. Fred Piepenbrink, Frankfort, who was unable to attend the party because of recent surgery.

Special Park Committee.

The day's festivities will begin with a ballgame at 3:30 o'clock. Other entertainment will follow and continue thruout the day. The Lincoln-Way High School Band, under the direction of Robert Taylor, will play a concert at 7 p.m.

Dinner tickets are $1.75 for adults and $1.00 for children. They may be obtained from any club member or by writing to Burnett Schram, 20 South Ash Street, Frankfort. Annual Sauerkraut Day Set For Sept. 2

The Saturday before Labor Day, Sept. 2, will be a big day in Frankfort. On that day, The Frankfort Lions Club will hold its fifth annual Sauerkraut Day. Tony Baker, club president and chief chef for the big event, is getting orders ready for the hundreds of pounds of kraut, Bratwurst, wieners, boiled potatoes, and bread that will make up the tasty German meal.

The scene for the fun day will be Frankfort Community Park, Nebraska and Locust streets. Serving will begin at 4:30 P.M. and will continue until 7:30. Serving will be in the Veterans' Memorial Building, so weather will not interfere with downing sauerkraut and the other provender. Homemade desserts will be served by the

Frankfort School Pupils To Register

Registration of all grade school pupils at Frankfort will be held the week of Aug. 21-25, at Frankfort School.

The school office will be open for registration from 9 to 12 and 1 to 3:30 each day of the week.

Fees will be collected, class assignments made and other pertinent information given out, it was announced by school authorities.

All children entering school for the first time or entering the fifth grade must show evidence they have had physical and dental examinations. This is a state law and youngsters who do not have such certificate cannot attend school, it was pointed out.

Supt. Leroy Olson, as is the case with administrators of other school districts, finds an increase in the shortage of substitute teachers. He suggests that all persons with a college degree who would be interested in substitute teaching assignments to get in touch with their school administrators to see if they can qualify as substitute teachers.

A similar appeal in the area last year did have results, it was said.

End of the 1967 season in the Lincoln-Way Area Baseball Association shows the Mokena Sox won the Pony League title and New Lenox Economy Giants are the champions of the Little League.

Eight Area Boy Scouts Earn Badges At Camping

MRS. EDWARD HOVI
Telephone: 479-5740

There were eight of the Boy Scouts who participated in the week long camping outing at the Black River Falls near Hatfield, Wis. The eight who joined in were: Stan Pasky, Joe Arcuri, Rick Fronich, Edward Hovi, Russel Dickerson, Joe Mangan, Frank Perritano, and Jim Rochelle.

The boys were accompanied by Joe Arcuri, the Scoutmaster, and Dan Markowski and his family. The Robert Dickerson family came up on Monday and camped nearby until that Friday.

The boys did some work on their merit badges and rank requirements. Russel Dickerson earned three merit badges while there;

the swimming, cooking, and the fishing badges. He will be the first star scout in Arbury Hills who originated his scouting experience with Arbury Hills troops.

Two other scouts earned their swimming badges during the stay there; Joe Arcuri and Stan Pasky. Congratulations to all three boys.

The boys did quite a bit of fishing and all together the first day caught sixty crappies. The boys not only caught the fish, but also cleaned and cooked them.

Being part good samaritan, the boys pitched together and rebuilt the camp raft which had become in disrepair. The new raft was the large economy size and was soundly tested for durability by the boys before leaving the campsite.

The entire group left Black River Falls on Thursday morning for a side trip to the Wisconsin Dells including a boat trip to Fort Dells and the Upper Dells. They also went through the Circus Museum there and viewed the variety of indian dances presented there each night.

A good time for all, boys and adults alike. They all could probably stand a week's vacation to rest up from their week's vacation, but at least they are happily tired.

The "A" Team, managed by Foster Tekotte finished their season. They played the Manhattan team and won a close one by the score of ten to nine. The second game was against the Frankfort Team. This was a low scoring match with the Arbury Hills boys winning by the score of four to two.

These two wins brought them to a play-off against the New Lenox Team last Sunday afternoon. The two teams were locked in a one to one tie until the final inning, when New Lenox broke the tie with the winning run. The game ended with the score two to one in favor of New Lenox. Too bad boys, you have played well this season.

Mrs. Frank Louis on Poplar Street returned home this past week end after spending some time in the Silver Cross Hospital in Joliet.

The Waller little one, Beth was scheduled to come home also after a stay in the Saint James Hospital in Chicago Heights.

Vivian Steinbrenner Weds

The Trinity Lutheran Church, New Lenox was the scene of the wedding of Miss Vivian Steinbrenner and Donald Pohlmann.

The Rev. L. Reinke officiated at the July 9, 4:00 p.m. ceremony uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Steinbrenner, Cedar Rd., New Lenox, and the groom's parents of Hastings, Neb.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white floor length gown with lace sleeves and a lace bodice. Her veil was shoulder length with a two tier rhinestone crown. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and white stephanitis.

The maid of honor was Alice Schmidt of Peoria. She wore a floor length gown with an A line skirt and empire waist, and short sleeves. She carried a bouquet of white glads with petals tinted the color of the gown.

The bridesmaids were Gail and Donna Steinbrenner, Eleanor Pester and Susan Steinbrenner. Their gowns were in rainbow colors and identical with the maid of honor.

Serving as best man was Lowell Popp with Groomsman Kenneth Pohlmann, Galen Eberhardt, and Ernest Peck.

Flower girls were Kathy Peck and Kimberley Eberhardt.

A reception followed in the church basement. After a short honeymoon, the couple are now residing at Hastings, Neb. where the groom is employed as a piano technician.

SOME OF CROWD that occupied the bleachers at the Threshermen's Association's steam engine show at Francis 4-H Field. One has to throw in the coal to get these steam critters functioning but they have all the power anyone needs. Quite a few years ago a meteor was reported to have plunged to earth south of Joliet. It didn't leave a hole in the ground but there were a lot of cinders scattered about in a field. An inspection by science instructors quickly established the cinders as from coal. A threshing crew had been working on the farm and when it knocked the fire instead of leaving the cinders in a pile, scattered them about. But up to the time the meteor theory was exploded it had been an exciting day on the party lines. (Graphic Newspapers photo)

A patio under a large prized shade tree can be an attractive setting but it can cause problems for the tree. The only way a tree can obtain moisture is from the soil. If the soil is paved with a patio water runs off, air to the roots is denied and the tree suffers.

Before installing such a patio make provisions so trees moisture requirements will be satisfied. Drain the systems placed under the patio in a grid arrangement will permit feeding and watering the tree's roots. At the ends of the grids place upright screened tile to permit air circulation. If crushed stone is used, avoid lime bearing materials as they will change the acidity of the soil in an unfavorable fashion.

Surprising as it may seem, the majority of the trees feeding roots are in the upper 18" of soil. Therefore, use care and remove or injure as few of these roots as possible.

A solution that will minimize the problem for the tree is to build the patio on a sand base with bricks or flagstone. This construction will permit rainwater to seep into the soil and air may enter the earth to aerate the roots.

There are other indirect problems that patios create for trees. Portable grills and built-in barbecue pits, for example, may scorch branches if placed too close to trees overhanging the patio. Pines and other needle bearing trees are especially sensitive to this type of heat. The outdoor lights of patio living can also cause scorch injury when the bulbs are placed too close to the foliage.

While man made causes can cause injury to trees around a patio, insects especially the apple maggot will be active on apple trees for the rest of the summer. Apple maggots cause the fruit to be misshaped dimpled and unattractive, the larvae of this pest bores into the fruit causing brown streaks throughout the flesh. Red Delicious apples are particularly susceptible. Control this pest plus other insects and diseases by spraying every week to ten days with malathion, kelthane and captan. Stop spraying a week before the fruit is picked.

Book Beat Bands For Show Aug. 25

Friday, Aug. 25, is slated to be a big night for the beat conscious boys and girls. While there are those who would challenge the statement that the music for this county wide zingaree by six star bands on the grounds that their output has nothing to do with music, the boys and girls who like it say that music has nothing to do with it -- what they want is beat.

The business is to be staged at the Joliet Memorial Stadium and since the mid-get auto racers hold forth there on Saturday nights this band deal has to be held on a Friday, altho there are some contend that the sound of the racing cars and the sound of the band would work well together.

Sponsor of this affair is the Family Agency Service of Will County. Those in charge say that the program will be held, rain or shine but in the event of rain it will move indoors next door to the stadium at Inwood Center, on West Jefferson St., Joliet. The hour of beginning is 8 o'clock and the price will be $3 and $4. The $3 ticket admits the holder to the grandstand while for $4 one has limited access to the tract. Mail check or money order for tickets to Family Service Agency Benefit, 22 W. Cass St., Joliet, 60431. Persons sending orders for tickets also are requested to enclose self-addressed envelopes that are stamped.

The bands to be featured and their current hits pieces, are: Gene Pitney, (Just One Smile); Buckingham, "Mercy Mercy, Mercy"; Happenings, "My Mammy"; Music Explosion, "A Little Bit of Soul"; Fifth Estate, "Ding Dong, the Witch Is Dead"; and the Easybeats, "Makin' Do."

WILL COMPETE in Illinois State Fair flower arranging contest as representatives of the Will County 4-H clubs. Three will attend from Will County but Mary Jean Novy, of the Wesley Busy Bees was unable to be on hand when this picture was taken. On the left is Janet Anderson, Lockport, of the Country Shams 4-H, and at the right is DeDe Hauert, of Elwood, a member of the Jackson Live Wires 4-H. (Graphic Newspapers photo)

Open Letter from the HIRSCHS'

Dear friends,

It is well to pause sometimes and think how one will feel when a loved one is no longer among us. It may cause us to realize the little acts of kindness and attention we should be giving now - rather than to suffer remorse for neglect of a loved one after they have departed this world.

Change Name Of Organization

The executive board of the South Cook County Educational Development Cooperative (SCCEDC) Monday July 31, voted unanimously to change the name of the organization to the Educational Development Cooperative (EDC).

The action was taken on the recommendation of L. Marvin Olmsted, executive director of SCCEDC, as a means of more accurately reflecting the Cooperative's current membership which has been extended to include Lincoln - Way Community High School District 210 and Manhattan Elementary District 114 in Will County.

Lincoln-Way has officially been a member of the Cooperative since May; Manhattan recently petitioned for membership.

The July 31 meeting of the executive board of EDC was the first of the Cooperative's new fiscal year and the first under the organization's revised constitution. Under the new constitution, the executive board will consist of nine members as compared to the original twenty-two members.

Serving as board members for the 1967-68 year are the following district superintendents: John M. Flynn, Bremen Community High School District 228, president; S.P. Monteith, Steger Elementary District 194, president-elect; and members Ivan A. Baker, Park Forest Elementary District 163; Walter F. Fierke, Tinley Park Community Consolidated Elementary District 146; William O. Fisher, Consolidated (Sandburg-Stagg) High School District 230; Oscar W. Huth, Matteson Elementary District 162; Norbert Jerling, Orland Elementary District 135; M. Gene Kimmel, Hoover-Schrum Elementary District 157; George W. Lieb, Ridgeland Elementary District 122; Dr. Stephen J. Storkel, Evergreen Park Community High School District 231; and Dr. William O. Woodworth, Homewood-Flossmoor High School District 233.

The action of EDC's Executive Board is expected to be confirmed by the Senate, which consists of all superintendents within the membership, in its regular meeting later this month.

EDC represents joint agreements between elementary and secondary districts in the region and was formed by the respective superintendents and the boards of education in January of 1966.

During the ensuing year, the Cooperative, now on a combination planning and operational status and funded primarily under Title III of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, will undertake a number of research and special studies. These include the central administrative unit, regional educational data processing services, leadership and in-service training for teachers and administrators, central coordinated library unit, mobile teaching laboratory, junior high school evaluation and study project, sex education program, and a Far East studies program.

The objectives of the Cooperative are to combine the advantages of local autonomy with those of collective action.

Three Area Residents Suffer Serious Mishaps

JAMES PEYTON
Telephone: 532-1516

It became necessary for me to take Mrs. Evelyn Henschel of Pleasant Ave. to Hedges Clinic at the height of the storm Thursday to have a puncture wound taken care of which she received while trying to take some clothes off the line before the storm. She fell over the rabbit cage and one of the wires punctured her ankle so that two stitches (tape stitches) were required to close.

Saturday was another day as Mr. John Evans knocked his entire thumb nail off with a hammer while repairing his mower. It required a few shots and pain killing pills before he was released with a big metal thumb protector in place and told that he probably would not grow a new nail on that thumb.

Another bad accident happened Saturday night to Mrs. Rosemary Johnson of Ethyl Lane. She fell through her storm door glass and cut her forearm bad and was bleeding profusely when we left to take her to the Silver Cross Hospital in Joliet. Seven stitches were required to close this wound. Also I found out later that evening that her mother had taken a heart attack this week and has been informed that she is getting along pretty good. Also her husband Carl's brother had a gun accident and lost three toes. I would like to thank Darryl Gunn for assisting me in getting Rosemary to the hospital.

Well baseball fans, our boys baseball season is over and yet we didn't win a game. However we possibly could have won the game Saturday had we not played all of the boys on our team. As I explained to most of you we must first learn to lose gracefully and then learn to win proudly and each must be done in its order. Some of our older boys have come a long way and had we been able to have a game a week some of our younger boys would be a lot better also. I think that a lack of competition also creates a lack of desire in a lot of young boys and therefore you cannot work properly with all of these boys until you get this desire instilled in them. Next year we are going to have this desire because we have been asked to join the Arbury Hills Boys Baseball Assoc. on the basis of the results obtained with our own efforts this season. Quite a few fathers have helped with this team but the untiring efforts of Mr. Leonard Bushen in teaching these boys the proper methods of playing the game of baseball must not go unreported. Lets all give Leonard a big hand for giving us a season of baseball that has been more desirable each week as the season progressed and has created a far friendlier atmosphere among the parents as they sit on the sidelines each week and cheer the boys on to victory.

The Tinley Gardens Boys Baseball Team would like to thank Mr. John Barton, Realtor of Orland Park, for his donation of baseball equipment this past Saturday and I personally would like to express our gratitude for this gift as this will give us the opportunity to spend what little money we do have to purchase the best protective equipment so that none of our boys will get hurt.

Mrs. Sarah Cobb of Lenore Lane reports that her father, who lives in Alabama is not getting along well at all. We all offer our sympathy and hope that he gets well soon.

Last week I mentioned that Terry and Michael Bunt were on vacation down in Plainview, Mo. which is near St. Louis. However I didn't know that Cathy had gone with them so this little note will correct this situation. Sorry about that.

Will Check Mokena Hydrants

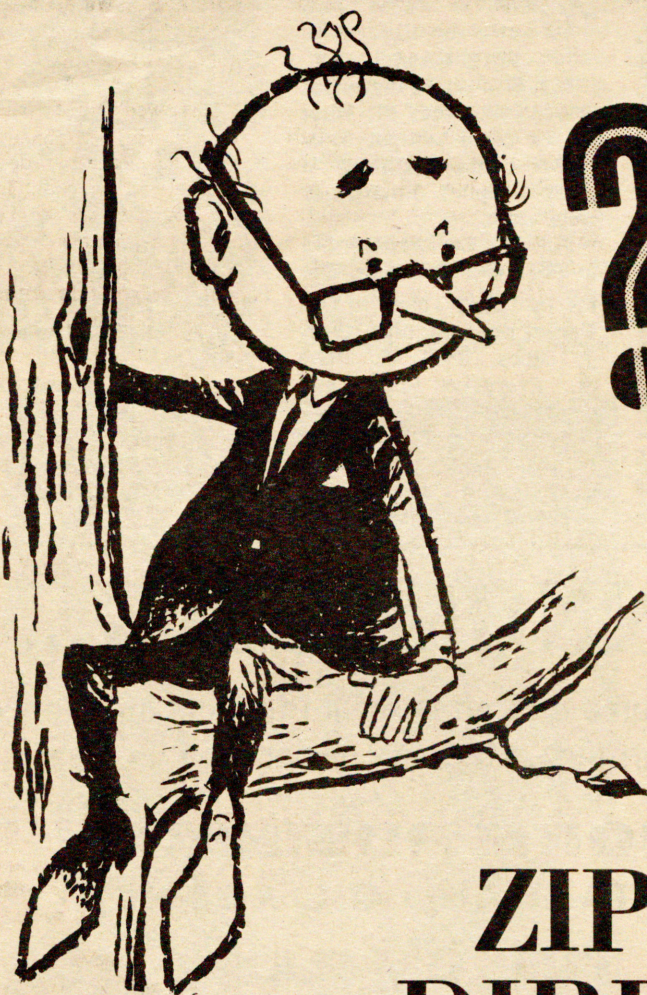

The fire hydrants at Mokena are to be checked and standardized and put in repair, where needed. The job goes to Clyde Yunker whose bid was $1,570 plus approximately $120 for parts.

Some of the hydrants will be raised, and some lowered, and the threads standardized. The action was taken by the Mokena Village Board at the request of the Mokena Fire Protection District.

The board also authorized repairs at the points where three streets join Wolf Rd., First, Second and Third.

Three bids were received by the board on the demolition of the house owned by Edith Walshlaeger, on Front St., west of Wolf Rd. Two of the bids were submitted by Jack Armin. One was for demolishing the house, trucking the debris away and backfill the basement with part of the debris, for $500. The second bid called for wrecking the house, carrying the debris away and backfill the basement with solid fill, for $900. The other bid, submitted by Ray Hunt, was for $995 to tear down the house and level the lot. The board decided against action now but will consider the subject at its August meeting.

The board adopted an ordinance prohibiting parking in front of the mail box set on the curb in front of the postoffice for the benefit of those who wish to deposit mail without leaving their cars.

Discuss Marketing Program Of Illinois Farm Bureau

What the Farm Bureau has done, is doing and plans to do in marketing was discussed last Thursday night at a meeting in the Will County Farm Bureau office on Manhattan Rd. in Joliet.

This was what the county farm bureau president, Robert Eaton, of Elwood, calls a "bend your ear meeting." Such a meeting was held May 4 at which those attending expressed views on various subjects, including marketing. So much interest was shown in the subject of marketing that the meeting of last Thursday was arranged.

Speakers Thursday were Dwight Davis, of Bloomington, associate secretary of marketing of the Illinois Agricultural Association, and Elmer White, Chicago, director of information of Interstate Producers Livestock Association, which is an affiliate of the Illinois and Iowa Agricultural Associations.

Add all these names together and they come to Farm Bureau. There are other farm and farmer organizations but the Farm Bureau is the big one.

Davis and White stressed they were employees of the Farm Bureau and as such only carried out policies adopted by the membership—they have no part in making policy.

The farm bureau in Illinois dates back about 50 years, Davis pointed out, and one of the first things it did was to inaugurate a marketing program.

"The producer agencies," he said, "are the farmers representatives at terminal livestock markets in Illinois, Iowa, Indiana and Missouri, and are the largest handlers of livestock today in the world."

Davis pointed out that at the request of vegetable growers the Illinois Farm Bureau organized the Quality Vegetable Growers Association, a program that was adopted by the American Farm Bureau and the farm bureaus of other states and has been quite successful. Thru this program contracts are arranged with processors to take tomatoes, peas, green beans, pumpkins and other vegetables. Electronic devices have been invented to grade some of these vegetables with resultant benefits to the producers.

A voice from the back of the room protested that those present weren't vegetable growers. Davis said that the farm bureau was working on this.

"We are working on numerous things with the intent to benefit the farmer over a long term," he said, "but farmers aren't ready yet to accept the contract idea."

White said that the Interstate Livestock Producers Association has a contract with a packing firm in the St. Louis area to provide it with 1,000 hogs daily but was having difficulty in getting farmers to sign up.

A question was brought up as to why a guaranteed price for guaranteed production would not be the answer. Davis said that it would be extremely difficult to guarantee production inasmuch as farming was at the mercy of the elements but a guaranteed price that would assure a producer a profit on, say soybeans and corn, would over-stimulate their production, unless production was controlled.

"Who is going to say who is to cut back?" he asked and added in response to an assertion that production would be limited by voluntary action of producers, that people and human nature being what they are voluntary cutbacks wouldn't work.

It has been noted on various occasions by various observers that the American farmer is an independent business man whose first interest is the welfare of his family and himself and is hesitant to share his independence.

Davis spoke of negotiations now underway to export soybeans to Japan and Iran with premiums paid on the oil content of the beans. For some unexplainable reason Illinois soybeans have a higher oil content than soybeans grown in other states, it was said. Davis pointed out that oil from sunflower seeds has had the big play in foreign markets but that quality soybeans are beginning to stage a comeback.

"The major objective of the Farm Bureau," he said, "is to help the membership to get a greater return on their endeavors. We have to think of quality; of what the consumer will buy; when to sell; can we use contracts for corn and soybeans as we do for quality vegetables; do we need commodity groups; the need to learn more about the futures market; the need to communicate and give the membership a greater understanding of marketing problems; the need to work closer with state and federal government on grades and standards of farm produce and livestock; the need of a consumer education program. The Farm Bureau is working on all these things. We want to keep you informed so that you in deciding what course you want to follow you will have facts to aid you in your thinking."

Policy is set by the directors and membership of the Farm Bureau at the annual state meeting.

A new-car type warranty for used-Ford buyers!

FORD MOTOR COMPANY

Used Car

Power Train Warranty

Ford Motor Company warrants to Purchaser of used 1-, 2- or 3-year-old Ford-built cars certified and registered by an authorized Dealer, that the Dealer, using genuine new Ford or Ford Authorized Reconditioned parts, will repair, free of charge including related labor, any Power Train part which fails in normal use and service within (I) 24 months from the termination of the New Car Warranty (or from the date the Used Car Warranty is registered, if that is later) or (II) 5 years from the date of production or (III) 50,000 miles of total operation, whichever comes first.

The Purchaser will pay only the first $25 of the total warranty repair bill and must present his Owner Card or Warranty Certificate.

Power Train parts include: engine block, head, and all internal engine parts, oil pan and gaskets, water pump, intake manifold, transmission and all internal transmission parts, torque converter, driveshaft, universal joints, rear axle, and all rear axle internal parts, and rear wheel bearings; but exclude related items such as ignition, electrical, cooling and fuel systems, engine or transmission controls or linkages, manual gearshift lever, clutch or brake assemblies or wheels, tires or tubes.

The Warranty is not transferable and does not apply to failures caused by abuse, neglect or inadequate maintenance.* repairs attempted by non-authorized dealers, accidents or other casualty.

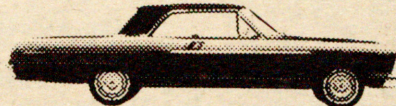

*Every 6 months/6,000 miles: engine oil and filter should be changed, breather cap and air filter cleaned and transmission and axle fluid levels checked. Every 12 months/12,000 miles: air filter (closed ventilation system) emission control valve, thermostat filter and oil breather cap (1964 models) should be changed, and emission system and carburetor spacer cleaned. Every 36 months/36,000 miles: air filter (open ventilation system) should be replaced, and universal joints (1964-65 models) repacked. (On 1964-65 Lincolns, manifold to water valve hose and choke hose should be replaced every 24 months/30,000 miles. On 1965-66 8-cyl. Mercurys and Comets with air-conditioning, and all 1966 Lincolns, manifold to water valve hose should be replaced, and in all models, engine coolant should be changed every 24 months/36,000 miles.)

Your investment is covered for 2 years or 50,000 miles when you buy a 1964, 1965 or 1966 Ford-built car from your Ford Dealer

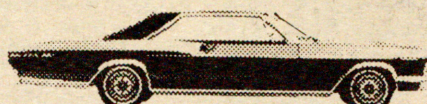

The 24/50 Power Train Warranty on late-model used Ford cars is like money in the bank. It gives you a feeling of security—whether you ever have to use it or not. But if you do have to use it, it's backed by the factory that built your car. And that says plenty about the quality of a used Ford.
